Jodi Daniel Dubose joined Stichter, Riedel, Blain & Postler P.A. on September 1, 2015, in the firm's newly-opened Pensacola office. Ms. Dubose received her J.D. in 2007 from the University of Florida. While in law school, she interned for The Honorable Lewis M. Killian, Jr., Bankruptcy Judge, Northern District of Florida.

Ms. Dubose is a past president of the Northern District of Florida Bankruptcy Bar Association, the Escambia-Santa Rosa Bar Association (ESRBA) and the Young Lawyers' Division of the ESRBA. She was the Inaugural Chair of the Gulf Coast Network of the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation, and also serves on IWIRC International's Executive Board.

She has served on the Executive Council of the Business Law Section of the Florida Bar since 2011, chairing its Bankruptcy/UCC Committee, Bankruptcy Judicial Liaison Committee, Annual Retreat Committee, Membership Committee, and various study groups and task forces. Most recently, she successfully co-chaired its Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors Glitch Bill Task Force and was appointed Vice Chair of the Uniform Commercial Real Estate Receivership Act Glitch Bill Task Force.

Ms. Dubose regularly represents debtors, committees, creditors, trustees, purchasers, fiduciaries, and other parties in bankruptcy cases, assignments for the benefit of creditors, receiverships, and out-of-court workouts. She has been particularly active in fiduciary representation in state and federal courts, and also handles civil litigation matters, principally in connection with debtor-creditor disputes. Ms. Dubose is the appointed Subchapter V Chapter 11 Trustee for the Northern District of Florida, is certified by the Florida Supreme Court to mediate circuit civil cases in Florida state courts, and is approved by the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Florida to mediate mortgage modification disputes. She is licensed to practice law in Florida, Alabama, and Texas.
